FEBRUARY CANDLELIGHTING CEREMONY with President of BPW Ontario Marlene McKinnon

Marlene has been a member of BPW for over 30 years on Local, District, Provincial, National & International levels. Her dedication to women even led her as far as Venice Italy to be an observer at the International Congress in 1996. Since 2005 Marlene has been working for the Sault Ste. Marie Region Conservation Authority as the GIS Specialist and Source Water Protection Program Mgr. She lived in Oshawa and worked in Toronto with Ontario Lottery Corporation for three years before relocating to Sault Ste. Marie in 1990 where she returned to college in 1999 to complete her formal education and pursue other career opportunities. Raising two daughters, four grandchildren Marlene welcomed her first great granddaughter in 2021.
