Human Trafficking in the Niagara Peninsula

Carol
Harding

Please join Carol Harding and Our BPW Niagara Falls Members and Guests as we learn more about:

- ⇒ the process of human trafficking
- ⇒ the reasons for its high incidence in Niagara,
- ⇒ the supports available to trafficking survivors
- ⇒ how we can help to reduce the number of people trafficked.

I worked as an educator for the Sudbury Board of Education. During those years I found myself in a variety of positions - classroom teacher, learning resource teacher, teacher of the deaf and hard of hearing and special education consultant - the position from which I retired 25 years ago.

In retirement I have found a plethora of new interests, friends and even a new city to live in. Of particular interest to me is the advocacy work done by the Canadian Federation of University Women on behalf of women and girls.

And WE DID ! Since 1917...

Info, Events & Meetings

Business and Professional Women is an equality-seeking group working toward the improvement of economic, political, employment, and social conditions for women.

BPW Niagara Falls holds monthly meetings, which provide opportunities to stay informed on women's issues, to enjoy a guest speaker, and to network with other working women. We also hold social events with several active committees.
