Companioning the Dying as a Death Doula

Merri-Lee Culbert
[Soul Journeys Healing
& Companioning](http://SoulJourneysHealing.com)

In this presentation, Merri-Lee Culbert will share how she supports the dying and their loved ones from diagnosis through bereavement.

There are many deaths along a dying journey, in her role as a death doula and bereavement specialist, Merri-Lee provides insight, compassion, empathy and education on how to navigate those losses while fostering healing, hope and meaning.

It was her own mother's dying journey in 2010 that inspired Merri-Lee Culbert to become a Death Doula, having witnessed how beautiful, meaningful and healing a 'good death' can be for both the dying and their loved ones. Merri-Lee established her business, Soul Journeys Healing & Companioning in 2015 and has companioned many souls on their dying journeys through both natural and medically assisted deaths. In 2017, she helped to create and co-facilitate a Canadian Death Doula Training Program for a national hospice organization, as well as founded Niagara Death Cafe; a safe and non-judgmental space to bring thoughts, questions, beliefs, and fears about dying, death and grief.
